Let your stories give added value:

- Enable community leaders, boards of directors, CEOs, managers and staff confidently tell your collective story
- Build internal capacity & capability
- Review, renew and create sustainable practices
- Celebrate success
- Lift your brand and share your purpose
- Document and share your legacy
- Share your theory of change & transformation
- Build connectedness
- Engage profoundly and strategically through storytelling
- Know your audience and communicate your message clearly and effectively
- Find your tribe through a shared understanding of each other's story
- Research the unheard stories of your community
- Meet the needs of constituents, heal past grievances
- Build stronger, safer & more resilient communities

Hear what others have to say...

*Ruth is a highly creative person with a unique ability to connect with people in the professional and personal spheres. Pratima Mathews, Communications Specialist, U.K

*It's a joy to contemplate a book, a record, an acknowledgement, a history like this. Phil Harrington, School Of Counselling Human Services & Social Work, Faculty Of EdSW, UoA

*The board of directors recognised the importance of documenting the turning points in Fosters' growth. I have learnt a lot while seeing this book come to fruition. Michael Crawford, Chairperson, Board of Directors, Foster Construction Group Ltd

Ruth did an outstanding job on the homelessness research and reporting project within tight deadlines and we would recommend her services to other organisations and councils undertaking similar projects.

Frank Begley, Manager Community Partnerships, Whakatāne District Council
